Notes from the Editor: Confederate Memorial Day

The Sentinel would like to thank all Compatriots in Secession Camp that attended the various Confederate Memorial Day ceremonies last month. Your presence at these functions sends a strong message out to all of those that doubt our resolve to always show pride in our Confederate heritage. The sacrifices made by these brave men of the South should never be considered as less important than the sacrifices made by all American soldiers, whether Union or Confederate. We are the descendants of some of the greatest fighting men in the annals of history. I take great pride in knowing that the same blood that ran through the veins of my Confederate ancestor, also runs in my veins and those of my son. The same blood that was also spilled in defense of his family, home and country resides in all of us as descendants of these great men. Like most Compatriots in our Camp, my Confederate ancestor died during the war. I had a Great Grandfather die in Point Lookout from disease after being captured at Pickett's Charge while fighting with the 37th NC Infantry, Co. G. He also lost his brother, same regiment and Company, early in the War at Frayser's Farm during the Seven Days Battle. Many of us can look into our family histories and see where Fathers, brothers, Uncles and cousins went to fight for the South and many did not come home. Their commitment was true and their sacrifices great. I feel this quote exemplifies our resolve to honor our heritage then and now.

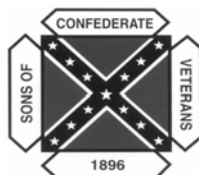

"If I ever disown, repudiate, or apologize for the Cause for which Lee fought and Jackson died, let the lightnings of Heaven rend me, and the scorn of all good men and true women be my portion. Sun, Moon, Stars, all fall on me when I cease to love the Confederacy. 'Tis the cause, not the fate of the Cause, that is glorious!"

-- Major R. E. Wilson, CSA

The Charge

To you Sons of Confederate Veterans, we submit the vindication of the cause for which we fought; to your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate Soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles he loved and which made him glorious and which you also cherish. Remember, it is your duty to see that the true history of the South is presented to future generations.

Heritage Watch

by Rob Nance

This month's Heritage Watch brings news of political boondoggling and how an Upstate newspaper, The Spartanburg Herald Journal, recently ran a story perpetrated by the Southern Poverty Law Center to slander a candidate for office by his association with the SCV. Chris Sullivan, the campaign manager for state Senate District 12 candidate Lee Bright, and also the Commander-In-Chief of the SCV (oh by the way!) has been accused of "purging the SCV", while a member of the executive committee in 2003, of "non-racists". The SPLC has hit a new all-time low with this one. For the SPLC to state that we kick out "non-racists" is so ridiculous and ludicrous that I at first thought I had read the article wrong! But, they are obviously gasping for a racially charged issue during an election year. Commander-In-Chief Sullivan said "no members were expelled and that there has not been an attempted takeover by racists". But regardless of the truth, the SPLC has gotten its pseudo political event out in the media and the end result is slander upon our heritage based organization. SPLC spokeswoman Heidi Bierich also went as far to say that the SCV is being attacked from "within" by "extreme factions". According to Heidi we are living under a Neo-Confederate "Jihad" and we are to be overrun any day now. Many Camps within our state have responded quickly and strongly to this slander. Our Camp Commander has requested a motion (see p. 7 "Mickey Davis Fund Request") to rebut these lies. You can view the article in question at:

FROM THE COMMANDER

My Fellow Compatriots,

I hope this newsletter finds all the Compatriots of Secession Camp well. Confederate Memorial Day is now behind us and the many observances around the area and state went very well. I was pleased to see that this year The Post and Courier had one of their staff writers do a piece on Confederate Memorial Day before the May 10th observances. That's the first time I can remember that being done is quite some time. I had the honor of delivering greeting for Secession Camp at the UDC service on Saturday at Magnolia Cemetery and I was also pleased to see a good turn out at the evening service at the Huguenot Church. I want to thank all those in the camp who helped make these services possible and thanks to everyone who turned out for a Memorial Day event. New Highway Clean-up Chairman Michael Dixon did an excellent job on his first clean-up and as usual brought Penny and Joey with him. Thanks to all the Compatriots who came out on the 31st to help with the clean-up. Job well done men!

I want to thank Past Commander Bill Baber for presenting the Hunley Medal at West Ashley H.S. last month. This is the second year that Bill has made the presentation on behalf of Secession Camp and the SC Division of the SCV. Thanks also go to those Compatriots who showed up to lend support to Bill during the presentation.

With the approval of funding for a trailer, Quartermaster David Rentz is equipping his car with a trailer hitch and will soon pick up the Quartermaster's trailer. We plan to use the side of the trailer for advertising Secession Camp and the SCV by installing signage so if anyone has knowledge or can help us with that project please let me or David know.

Please remember that Compatriot Bryan Riddle is looking for volunteers to help with the upcoming Fourth Annual Confederate Heritage Ride this September. Time is going fast and we'll need to get that project moving quickly now. Keep watching for the announcement of the next meeting and try to attend.

I hope everyone will try to be at our June 17th camp meeting which will be a Ladies Night in honor of the Snowden Chapter of the OCR. It will also be a birthday party for the Confederacy's President Jefferson Davis in this the 200th anniversary of his birth (he was born on June 3, 1808). We want to make this a special evening so Mess Corporal Don Pace and his crew are planning a special supper and Second Lt. Commander John Waring has lined up a speaker who will talk about President Davis. The ladies will be bringing a birthday cake and I think everyone will have a great time.

In closing, don't forget about the annual service at Ft. Lamar on June 14th and Carolina Day on June 28th and remember if you have any ideas or suggestions for the camp, I'm ready to listen.

Your Compatriot in Southern Heritage,
Bill Norris, Commander

FROM THE CHAPLAIN

Compatriots:

You can all take a deep breath and relax for awhile, the demands should be reduced in the short term. Secession Camp #4 was well represented in the Confederate Memorial Day activities last month. I would like to thank each of you who were able to participate in any of the many services. I feel collectively we took a giant step toward demonstrating how seriously we take the challenge set forth in that we are dedicated to "the perpetuation of those principles He loved and which made Him glorious." and "which you also cherish."

Compatriot Joe Davis is in good spirits as he continues his treatments. Your continued prayers are requested for Compatriots Davis, Jacobs, and Heidtmann. Please contact me if you are aware of a compatriot who is in need. I am always available at 843-871-9713 or by e-mail, smabie@earthlink.net. Please feel free to contact me at any time.

Past Camp Commander Bill Baber presents the Hunley Medal to Cadet Seaman Will Hoyt at West Ashley High School on May 23rd. In attendance from our Camp were Compatriots David Rentz, John Genes, Buck Perry and John Evans. Secession Camp wishes Congratulations to Cadet Hoyt!

CAMP SUPPER

The Fried Catfish dinner and fixings had many Compatriots asking for seconds and all of us loosening our belts a notch! Once again it was an awesome Camp supper! Dinner was prepared by Mess Corporal Don Pace and his crew. Last month Compatriots Bob Gissell, Perry Patrick, Don Petty and Dan Pinson gave Don a hand. Just as usual these folks came in long before the meeting to cook for us (and clean-up after us) and we owe them our thanks for another fine meal. Remember without volunteers like these we would not be able to enjoy a good supper together at camp meetings so please let them know how much we appreciate what they do for us and think about volunteering to help Don's crew sometime. At the June meeting Don and Crew will be cooking Grilled Seasoned Chicken, Green beans, Iced Tea and Dessert! Good Southern food with Confederate friends!

JUNE SAW LAST CONFEDERATE GENERAL SURRENDER

by John Whatley

Stand Watie was born in the Cherokee Nation on 12 December 1806 near what is now Rome, Georgia. When the Federal Government pushed for the Cherokees to remove to Oklahoma in the 1830s, Watie was one of the few to agree. He signed the 1835 treaty in which the Cherokees gave up their eastern lands and moved to Oklahoma and Arkansas – what is called "The Trail of Tears". In Oklahoma Watie became a successful planter.

When the War Between the States began, the Indian Territory [Oklahoma] was split on whether to support the United States, which had broken almost every treaty with them, or join the Confederacy, States of which had forced their removal west. Although the Cherokees officially remained "neutral", after the Confederate victory at Wilson's Creek, Watie raised a Cherokee volunteer regiment called the Cherokee Mounted Rifles and was appointed colonel by the Confederate Government. Watie and his troops pulled daring cavalry raids throughout Indian Territory against both Union troops and pro-Union Indians. Striking quickly and hard, Watie became known for his genius at guerrilla-style warfare. By 1864 he and his troops controlled most of Indian Territory, driving pro-Union Indians north into Kansas. On 6 May 1864 he became a brigadier general, the only Indian to reach general status during The War.

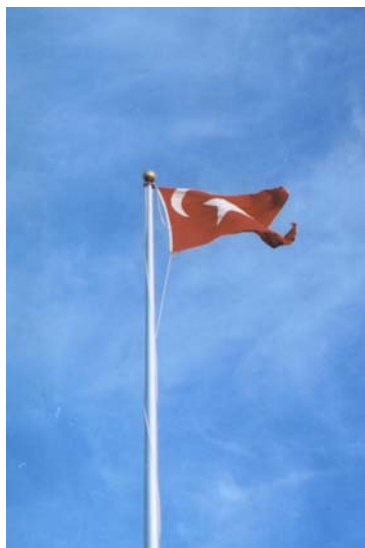

Watie was one of the few generals to ever capture a boat. The Yankees sent the steamer J. R. Williams from Fort Smith up the Arkansas River to resupply Fort Blunt. Guarding the $120,000 worth of supplies on board were 26 Union soldiers. Watie and his troops opened fire on the steamer with artillery and rifles, forcing it to beach across the river. The Yankees fled back to Fort Smith, leaving the boat and the supplies to Watie.

When Richmond fell, and Lee and Johnston surrendered, Watie was unwilling to admit defeat. He kept his command in the field for nearly a month after Gen. E. Kirby Smith surrendered the Trans-Mississippi on 26 May 1865. His command was one-third of the Cherokee Nation and they had been proscribed by the tribe for refusing to repudiate the treaty made with Richmond. He later received a message that Union Lt. Col. Asa C. Matthews had been appointed to negotiate a peace with the Indians. On June 23 Watie rode into Doaksville near Fort Towson in Indian Territory and surrendered his command of Creek, Seminole, Cherokee, and Osage Indians.

The last Confederate general officer to surrender his command, Watie lived his remaining life varying between poverty and meagre success, dying at Delaware City, Oklahoma, 9 September 1871.

Mickey Davis Fund Request

Subject: Heritage Defense Fund - Response to Spartanburg Herald-Journal Article

This motion request that $500.00 from the Mickey Davis Fund be used to help fund the cost of responding to the article published on the front page of the Spartanburg Herald-Journal on May 26, 2008. This article slandered the SCV and CIC Chris Sullivan. The funds will be used to buy television time to rebut these allegations. This response is being supported by the SC Division and the National SCV. It is the duty of the SCV, as the primary living representative of the Confederate soldier, to act as guardian of his history. The history and reputation of the SCV is integral to our charge and can not be separated from that charge. Therefore defending the reputation of the SCV defends the reputation of the Confederate soldier and is inline with the guidelines of the Mickey Davis Fund.

On Saturday May 31st new Highway Clean-up Chairman Michael Dixon put together a crew to clean the Glenn McConnell Parkway in West Ashley. The weather was great and several Compatriots turned out to get Michael off to a good start. As usual Michael's wife Penny and son Joey were there to help out. Michael reported that the highway was in pretty good shape this time but the crew still managed to pick-up 14 bags of trash in about two hours. Pictured, from left to right are Compatriots Bill Norris, Andy Langdale, Bobby Compton, Sam Antley, Bob Gissell, Michael Dixon, Don Pace, Ben Pittman, Joey Dixon, and not pictured is Mrs. Penny Dixon. Many thanks go to these folks for helping the Camp meet it's commitment to maintaining the Glenn McConnell Parkway. Please remember the next highway clean-up scheduled for September 9, come out and give us a hand. It's as fun as it is work and the companionship is great.
